

Clothes Drying

Drying a load of clothes in a dryer generates more than 3kg of greenhouse gases.

Put them on the line or over a clothes rack! But if you have to use the dryer, you can save up to 2kg of greenhouse gas per load by hanging clothes on a rack for a while before finishing them off in the dryer.

